

Attendance

Students may cancel a claimed ticket at any time online prior to noon, one day in advance of the game. After this point, students must attempt to give their give their bar-coded ticket to another eligible student.

Penalties

Students that claim a ticket that is not used for admittance to the football game are penalized by one point. Depending upon class, each student starts a season with “x” amount of loyalty points. (Seniors/ Grad Students=5, Juniors=4, Sophomores=3, Freshman=2). Losing loyalty points throughout the season with decrease the chances obtaining a ticket for future games.

Student Conduct

Counterfeiting, altering, selling, or distributing student tickets to persons that are not current & valid NC State students is prohibited. The office of student conduct will address issues related to these violations.

Running in the stadium, holding seats, or pushing at the gates is strictly prohibited and cause for expulsion from the game and revocation of ticket privileges.

- As a reminder, it is a violation of North Carolina state law to possess alcohol under the age of 21 or to possess spirituous liquor at an athletic event.
- Unauthorized persons are not allowed on the playing field and are subject to arrest.
- Violations of state law of university policy are typically charged and trespassed from Carter-Finley for the remainder of the football season.